D.O. No.43-2/2011-QCC/207

March 27, 2012

Dear

Shri Shishir Sinha

As you are aware that current Rabi Marketing Season (RMS) 2012-13 has started. Arrangements for procurement of wheat have been made by FCI and State Procuring Agencies. The uniform specifications for wheat and barley for RMS 2012-13 have already been issued by this Department. A copy of the same is enclosed.

2. I request you to issue necessary instructions to all the officers engaged in the procurement operations to ensure that only those foodgrains which strictly conform to uniform specifications for the RMS 2012-13 are procured. Farmers should be advised to offer only dry and clean stocks. Senior Officers may be deputed for surprise inspection of the procurement centres to ensure the procurement of foodgrains of the prescribed quality.

3. Adequate facilities for cleaning of foodgrains, preferably power cleaners, may be provided to all the procuring centres. This will enhance the quality of foodgrains being procured by FCI and the State procuring agencies.

4. It may be ensured that all the grain bags are properly stenciled and stitched. A copy of the quality control measures to be taken by the procuring agencies is enclosed.

5. Action taken in this regard may please be intimated to this Department.

With regards,

Yours sincerely,

D. Bhalla
